Family Law Practitioners Association Tasmania

Conference 2018

Saturday 19 May 2018    Home Hill Winery
Welcome to the 2018 Conference

AN EXCITING AND INFORMATIVE PROGRAM

FLPAT is excited as always to put on an interesting and very relevant program for its 40th anniversary. This year’s conference has a great mix of three important areas in Family Law: Children, Ethics, and Finances.

Brett Walker-Roberts will be presenting on child support agreements, utilising his first-hand knowledge as a senior public servant to the Child Support Program in the DHHS. Dr. Catherine Boland will also be presenting a very interesting and topical discussion about cognition and memory in children, which is sure to be of use to all family practitioners.

We are lucky to have Emily Warner from the LBPT and Alison Clues (the manager of the Law Society’s indemnity insurance scheme) give us an insider perspective as to the types of professional issues that crop up amongst family law practitioners, and how the Board, and the insurer deals with those issues.

Danny Rands of PKF Tasmania will be delivering a talk about the treatment of trusts in a family law perspective, drawing on his experience as an expert witness often briefed to give evidence in the Family Court.

Last, but certainly not least, FLPAT is lucky to have members of the judiciary sit on the judges panel to round out what promises to be a very interesting day.

Dinner
Friday 18 May

The 2018 Conference Dinner will be held at Mures Upper Deck on Friday 16 May (the night before the conference) along the picturesque Hobart waterfront. The Conference Dinner is an important – and always well-attended – event that allows the family law profession to relax. The dinner has become a highlight of the State Conference over past years. Partners are welcome and the price is $82.50 per person, to be paid as part of your registration. Please let us know of any special dietary requirements.
