

MAGAZINE LAUNCH

PEN & SWORD: THE MEDIA & ARMED CONFLICT

Photo courtesy of Peter Cave. Peter Cave, Libya

Thursday, August 20
1:00pm – 2:00pm

UTAS, Sandy Bay Campus
Social Sciences 209

RSVP to Kasia Kremzer at:
kkremzer@redcross.org.au

With guest speaker

Leon Compton, presenter Mornings on ABC
Local Radio Tasmania

Journalists have a powerful role in conflicts. They bear witness to the horror of war and report it to the world.

War correspondents are specifically protected by the laws of war.

Yet, correspondents are also among the most at risk of being wounded, kidnapped or killed.

Join us to learn more about:

- the dangers facing journalists in conflict zones,
- how journalists can report on conflicts to help compel authorities to respect the laws of war.

