

Outstanding Pro Bono Legal Award

What are the Awards?

The Outstanding Pro Bono Legal Award is presented to a law firm or an individual lawyer who has demonstrated an outstanding pro bono legal assistance activity resulting in improved access to justice for disadvantaged people in the community.

The Outstanding Pro Bono Legal Award judging panel is seeking nominations.

Award Criteria

Outstanding pro bono legal assistance activity in improving access to justice for socially and economically disadvantaged people in Tasmania

How has the nominee's achievement in improving access to justice for socially and economically disadvantaged people been outstanding?

By a range of pro bono activities or by a single significant activity,

What is the range of work over an extended period or work over a shorter period but of exceptional impact that demonstrates the nominee's outstanding achievement in improving access to justice?

Achievement above the normal call of duty

Is the nominee's outstanding achievement within the expected role of the nominee or is there an ingredient that takes it above and beyond the expected role of the nominee?

Demonstrated impact as a result of pro bono work for ongoing benefit or reach

What has been the impact on individual clients as a result of the pro bono legal assistance? Include examples that demonstrate the impact of the pro bono work and how it has improved access to justice for the disadvantaged client.
