Corporate & Commercial - Senior Associate

Work on complex transactions, advisory matters and strategic commercial projects
At Page Seager, you'll do more than progress your legal career. You'll work closely with leading corporate and commercial clients, enjoy direct access to decision makers, and be part of a firm that combines sophisticated legal work with genuine relationships and a strong sense of connection.

We are seeking a Corporate & Commercial Senior Associate to join our highly regarded Corporate & Commercial team.

This is an opportunity to work on complex commercial transactions, strategic advisory matters and projects that support businesses, government, institutions and organisations across Tasmania and beyond. You'll be supported by experienced Principals, work directly with clients and play a key role in helping clients mitigate risk, solve challenges and pursue new opportunities.

The Opportunity
You will advise on a broad range of corporate and commercial matters, including:

- Share, business and asset acquisitions and disposals
- Commercial contracts, transaction structuring and negotiated arrangements
- Corporate governance, including directors' duties, constitutions, charters and internal policies
- Joint ventures, partnerships, consortium arrangements and shareholder or unitholder structures
- Corporations Act and ASX compliance, including reporting and disclosure requirements
- Privacy, data management, cybersecurity and regulatory compliance matters
- Australian Consumer Law and National Credit Code advice
- Technology, outsourcing, cloud services, licensing and telecommunications arrangements
- Energy, infrastructure and project-related commercial arrangements

You will have significant client contact and be trusted to manage matters, provide practical and strategic advice, build relationships and contribute to the continued growth of the practice.

Why Page Seager?
As Tasmania's largest Tasmanian-owned and operated law firm, we offer the quality and complexity of work often associated with larger metropolitan firms, while maintaining the accessibility, collegiality and genuine relationships that make legal practice rewarding.
Our lawyers benefit from:

- Direct access to Principals and senior decision makers.
- High-quality corporate and commercial work with leading Tasmanian businesses, government, institutions, private clients and national organisations.
- Autonomy and responsibility appropriate to your experience.
- A collaborative environment where expertise is shared and success is celebrated.
- Strong administrative and operational support, allowing lawyers to focus on delivering great outcomes for clients.
- Professional development and career progression opportunities.
- A culture that values excellence, connection and long-term careers.
- The opportunity to build a rewarding career in Tasmania while working on sophisticated legal matters.

About You
You will:

- Have approximately 4-8 years' post-admission experience (applications from outstanding candidates outside this range are welcome).
- Demonstrate strong technical capability in corporate and commercial law.
- Have experience managing matters and client relationships.
- Be commercially minded, pragmatic and solutions focused.

- Possess excellent drafting, negotiation and communication skills.
- Enjoy mentoring junior lawyers and contributing to a positive team culture.
- Be committed to delivering exceptional client service.

Build Your Future with Page Seager
This role offers the opportunity to take the next step in your career within a respected and growing practice. You'll work on complex, meaningful matters, be trusted with genuine responsibility, and have the support of experienced colleagues who are invested in your success.

If you're looking for sophisticated corporate and commercial work, strong client relationships and a firm where your contribution is recognised and valued, we'd love to hear from you.
